Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons.

Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for the most consecutive winning campaigns.

Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers' Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than four times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

He brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995, when the Braves defeated Cleveland, four-games-to-two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight division titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its "Mr. Baseball" award that season.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several post-season honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to 1981, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by finishing 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, the Associated Press and Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as general manager in October of that year.

Cox spent five years in the Dodgers' farm system before being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the November 1964 Minor League Draft. He was acquired by the Braves in a 1966 trade that sent outfielder Billy Cowan to the Cubs. After playing for Triple-A Richmond in 1967, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team in 1968, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in '69.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. He served as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977.

Born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, Okla., Cox graduated from Selma (Calif.) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley Junior College.

He and his wife, Pam, reside in Marietta, Ga. They have three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla. He has five other children, Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy.

2023 YEAR-END NOTES

23 IN '23: The Braves clinched the 23rd division title in franchise history this season, beating Philadelphia, 4-1 on September 13 at Citizens Bank Park to win the National League East...The 23 division titles are the most in major league history, two more than Los Angeles (NL) and three more than New York (AL)...This season also marks the franchise's 29th postseason berth in the modern era and its sixth straight.

- A* The Braves won a major league-record 14 consecutive division titles from 1991-2005, with the first three coming as NL West champs before moving into the NL East in the strike-shortened 1994 season...They also won the West in 1969 and 1982, and the East in 2013 and every year since 2018.
- A* The six straight division titles marks the longest streak in baseball...The Astros have won three straight AL West titles dating to 2021, while the Dodgers have won each of the last two NL West crowns.
- A* The Braves clinched the title in their 146th game of the season...Per Elias, that is Atlanta's second-quickest clinch in the divisional era (since 1969) by team decisions...The 2002 Braves clinched after their 141st game...Atlanta did not clinch the 2022 title until game No. 161.
- A* The Braves were the first division winner in baseball this season...Atlanta clinched four days before Los Angeles (NL)...Last season, the Braves became the last team in baseball to clinch their division.
- A* The Braves' six straight playoff appearances mark the club's longest streak since their 14-year run from 1991-2005.
- A* The only other National League team to make the postseason in each of the last six years is Los Angeles...The Dodgers are working on an 11-season run...In the American League, Houston has been in every season since 2017, a seven-year run.

104 WINS: The Braves won 104 games this season, tied for the second-highest single-season win total in franchise history...The 104 wins were the club's most since the 1998 club won a franchise-record 106 games...The 1993 Braves also won 104 games to match this year's mark.

- A* The Braves went 101-61 last season, and have won 100 games in back-to-back years for the first time since 2002 (101) and 2003 (101)...The club won 100 in three straight seasons from 1997-99...The Dodgers are the only other club with 100 wins in each of the last two years.
- A* The Braves' 104 wins were the most in baseball, three games better than Baltimore (101-61, .623)...Atlanta had the best record in baseball this season for the first time since 1999, when the club went 103-59, three games better than Arizona.
- A* This marked the Braves' sixth consecutive winning season...They went 90-72 in 2018, 97-65 in 2019, 35-25 in 2020, 88-73 in 2021 and 101-61 in 2022...The Braves' 515 wins since 2018 are the second most in the National League, 43 behind Los Angeles for the league lead.
- A* The last time the Braves had six straight winning seasons was during a string of 15-consecutive winning seasons from 1991-2005.
- A* This marks the club's 60th winning season in the modern era (since 1900), and their 34th since the club moved to Atlanta in 1966...The 34 winning seasons since 1966 are the third most in the National League, and 12 off the lead of the Los Angeles Dodgers...St. Louis has 42.

SNIT: Brian Snitker completed his 47th season in the Braves organization in 2023, and his seventh full campaign as the Braves’ manager...Snitker took over on an interim basis on May 17, 2016, before being named Atlanta’s manager on October 11, 2016...Snitker joined the organization as a non-drafted free agent in 1977.

- A* Snitker is 646-509 (.559) at the major league level and was named NL Manager of the Year in 2018...He was a finalist for the award in 2019 and 2022, and finished fourth in 2020 and 2021.
- A* He managed the 1,000th game of his career in Atlanta’s home opener, April 6 vs. San Diego... He is just the fifth manager in franchise history to skipper 1,000 games, joining Bobby Cox (3,860), Frank Selee (1,677), George Stallings (1,201) and Bill McKechnie (1,235).
- A* Snitker won the 580th game of his career on June 8, the third-most wins by a manager in franchise history...He entered the season in fifth place...He now trails just Frank Selee (1,004 wins) and Bobby Cox (2,149 wins) on the franchise leaderboard...Both Selee and Cox are enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.
- A* Since taking over for Atlanta on May 17, 2016, Snitker’s 646 wins stand as fourth most for any manager in baseball...The Dodgers’ Dave Roberts (737) and Guardians’ Terry Francona (650) rank first and second, respectively, while the Rays’s Kevin Cash (648) sits third.
- A* Snitker managed for 20 seasons in the minor leagues, compiling a 1,301-1,309 (.498) record, while five of his clubs advanced to postseason play...He was named Manager of the Year twice while in the minor leagues, winning the award in 1999 and 2000 with Single-A Myrtle Beach.
- A* Snitker is the first manager in franchise history to take the team to the postseason six times in his first seven full seasons.

FIRST PLACE: Atlanta spent 185 calendar dates in first place this season, including holding the top spot after 156 of its 162 games...The Braves held a season-most, 17.0-game lead after play on September 13, and were a season-most 0.5 games out of the lead after play on April 2.

- A* Of the other five division winners, only Minnesota was in first place longer than Atlanta this season...The Twins led the AL Central after 157 of their games this season...However, Minnesota’s 87-75 record is worst of any division winner and 17.0 games behind Atlanta.
- A* The Braves were a season-most 47 games over .500 on September 30, holding a 104-57 record... Atlanta was last more games over .500 in 1998, when the Braves were an even 50 games over with a 106-56 record on the season’s final day.
- A* Atlanta never held a losing record this season, winning its first two games of the year in Washington and never dropping below .500...The Braves last went wire-to-wire with a winning record in 2018, the first year of their current division title streak.

GOOD OPPONENTS: Atlanta went 55-33 (.625) this season against opponents with a winning percentage at or above .500, the only team in baseball with a record above .600...The Dodgers ranked second, going 52-36 (.591).

- A* Against teams in the playoff field, the Braves were 38-25 (.603) on the season...That winning percentage would rank third-best in baseball overall, not counting Atlanta’s majors-best .641 mark...Only the Orioles (101-61, .623), Dodgers (100-62, .617) and Rays (99-63, .611) were better overall than Atlanta was against playoff teams.

ROSTER: The Braves used 53 different players this season, the exact same number the club used last year...Atlanta's total ranked 17th in the majors...The Angels used a majors-most 66 players, while Houston played a majors-least 41.

- A* The Braves used 22 position players and 31 pitchers (with one position player pitching), with 1B Matt Olson as one of just four players in baseball to play all 162 games this season...Of those four, Olson was one of just two players (Marcus Semien) to make all 162 starts...LHP A.J. Minter led all Braves relievers with 70 appearances, while RHP Spencer Strider made a team-high 32 starts.
- A* The 32 different players that pitched for Atlanta this season tied for the 13th-highest total in the major leagues with four other clubs...Houston and San Francisco only used 24, fewest in the majors.
- A* Minter led Atlanta in appearances for the second consecutive season and finished with the 18th-most games in the majors, eight off the lead of Matt Brash...Strider, RHP Bryce Elder (31 starts) and RHP Charlie Morton (30 starts) were among the 44 players in the majors this season to make at least 30 starts.
- A* The Braves used just nine rookies this season, tied for third fewest in the majors...Only the Phillies and Blue Jays, both with seven, used fewer...Seven of the nine for Atlanta this season were pitchers (LH Dylan Dodd, RH Daysbel Hernández, LH Jared Shuster, RH AJ Smith-Shawver, RH Darius Vines, RH Allan Winans and LH Danny Young), while SS Braden Shewmake and OF Forrest Wall appeared as position players...Eight of the nine rookies made their debuts this season, with LH Danny Young the only one with prior major league experience.
- A* The Braves received a majors-most 39.2 bWAR by their position players this season, while the pitching staff compiled a 16.2 bWAR to rank 10th.

AT HOME: The Braves went 52-29 (.642) at home this season, the third-best home record in the majors...Only the Dodgers and Rays, both at 53-28 (.654), were better...Atlanta won at least 50 home games for the second consecutive season and for the third time in six years since Truist Park opened in 2017.

- A* Since the 2017 inaugural season for Truist Park, Atlanta's 298 wins at home are sixth most in baseball and third most in the National League behind just the Dodgers (350) and Brewers (301)...Dating to the start of last season, only Los Angeles (110) has more wins than Atlanta (107) at home in all of baseball.
- A* The Braves this season set modern-era records for home games in runs (477), home runs (151), RBI (462), slugging (.509), total bases (1,390)...Atlanta outscored the opposition by 102 runs (477-375) at home this season, while out-homer them 151-100 (+51).
- A* Atlanta went 14-14 (.500) through its first 28 home games through May 27...From the following date, May 28, through the end of the season, the Braves went 38-15 (.717) here at Truist Park.

ON THE ROAD: The Braves went 52-29 (.642) away from Truist Park this season, tied with Baltimore for the best road record in the majors...Since 2018 and the start of this six-season playoff run, the Braves are the third-best road team in the majors with a mark of 254-181 (.584)...Only Los Angeles (NL) at .609 (265-170) and Houston at .593 (259-178) have been better over the last six seasons.

- A* The Braves' 52 wins on the road this season were the second most in a single season in modern-era franchise history...The 1993 club went 53-28 (.654) away from Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium to hold the current mark.

- A* The Braves’ road winning percentage of .642 is third best for the club since 1900, trailing just that ‘93 team and Milwaukee in 1957 (50-27, .649).
- A* Atlanta became the fifth club in modern-era franchise history to win 50 games on the road, and the first since the 1998 Braves went 50-31.
- A* The Braves have batted .270/.337/.490 with a majors-best .827 OPS away from Truist Park this year, and they lead all of baseball in hits (734), homers (148), runs (441) and extra-base hits (295) on the road for the season.

SCORE FIRST: The Braves went 78-25 (.757) this season when they scored the first run of the game... That was the best such record in the National League, and behind just the Orioles (61-19, .762) and Rays (79-25, .760) in the majors.

- A* Atlanta was one of just three teams in baseball this season to score the first run of the game over 100 times, along with the Rays (104) and Dodgers (101)...The Braves did so 103 times this year.

DOB 2/5/1934 Born Mobile, AL

One of the greatest hitters of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball’s Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers’ Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for 97.8 percent. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball’s record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game’s history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), and home runs (755), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 18th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth’s seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves’ bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League’s Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron’s services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League’s Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs).

In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league’s MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thomson out of the Braves’ lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves’ front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves’ 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. From December of 1989 until his death, he served as Braves’ Senior Vice President and in February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee..

BOBBY COX

MANAGER

Height 6-0      Weight 185

DOB 5/21/1941      Resides Tulsa, OK

Years With Braves 1978-1981, 1990-2010

Number Retired 2011

Known as the consummate “players” manager, Bobby Cox treated everyone with respect and dignity. He spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). The 2010 campaign marked his final season on the bench, as Atlanta went 91-71 and claimed the National League’s Wild Card. The 2010 campaign was Cox’s 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons. On June 8, 2009, Cox posted his 2,000th Braves victory, making him just the fourth skipper in big-league history to claim 2,000 wins with one team, joining Connie Mack (Athletics), John McGraw (Giants) and Walter Alston (Dodgers). On September 29, 2004, in the season’s final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach the milestone. Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time in consecutive winning campaigns. Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league’s top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him MLB Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985. Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports championship in 1995 when the Braves beat Cleveland, four games to two, in the World Series. Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to ‘81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club’s NL West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto’s manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985. Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as General Manager in October of that year. When Braves owner Ted Turner fired Cox in 1981, Turner was asked at the press conference who was likely to be the next manager. “It would be Bobby Cox if I hadn’t just fired him,” Turner said. “We need someone like him around here.” The Braves retired Cox’s uniform number 6 and inducted him into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2011. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, along with two of his former pitchers, Greg Maddux and Tom Glavine.

TOM GLAVINE

PITCHER

Full Name Thomas Michael Glavine

Height 6-0Weight 205

DOB 3/25/1966Born Concord, MA

Years With Braves 1987-2002, 2008

Number Retired 2010

Tom Glavine won 305 regular-season games in his 22-year Major League career. But it was his eight innings of one-hit, shutout baseball in Game 6 of the 1995 World Series that accounted for his most significant victory. The Braves won 1-0 to capture the first championship in Atlanta history, and Glavine earned the series Most Valuable Player. The left-hander arrived in Atlanta in 1987 and he won 20 or more games each year from 1991 to 1993. He won two Cy Young awards, first in 1991 and then in 1998. From 1993 to 1999, the Braves featured arguably the game’s top starting rotation – led by Glavine, Greg Maddux and John Smoltz. Over that seven-year stretch, Atlanta won six NL West Division titles and the League Championship Series in 1995, 1996 and 1999 in addition to the 1995 World Series. Glavine also pitched in two other Fall Classics – in 1991 and 1992. Following the 2002 season, Glavine signed as a free agent with the New York Mets.

He won his 300th game on August 5, 2007, an 8-3 verdict over the Chicago Cubs, becoming the 23rd pitcher and just the sixth left-hander to reach that plateau. Glavine returned to Atlanta in 2008 before retiring after the 2009 season. On the Braves’ career lists, Glavine ranks fourth in wins (244) and strikeouts (2,091). He had five 20-win seasons, leading the NL or tying for the lead each time. Glavine’s lifetime ledger was 305-203 with a 3.54 ERA, and his 682 games started ranked 12th on baseball’s all-time list when he retired. Possessing excellent control, the 10-time All-Star was a master at mixing up the speed of his pitches and locating them on – or just off – the corners of the strike zone. He also won four Silver Slugger Awards. Glavine was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, after earning 91.9 percent of the vote in his first year on the ballot.

ANDRUW JONES

OUTFIELDER

Full Name Andruw Rudolf Jones

Bats Right

Throws Right

Height 6-1

Weight 225

DOB 4/23/1977

Born Willemstad, Curacao

Years With Braves 1996-2007

Andruw Jones achieved notoriety as one of the premier defensive center fielders in baseball history. Combining an uncanny ability to get a jump on the ball with a strong arm, he earned 10 straight Gold Gloves while leading National League players at his position in putouts six times and assists on three occasions. Jones supplied plenty of offensive flare, as well. In Game 1 of the 1996 World Series, at age 19, he became the youngest player to hit a home run in the Fall Classic – going deep twice (in his first two at-bats) against the New York Yankees. Jones enjoyed his finest season at the plate in 2005, leading the majors with a then-franchise-record 51 home runs and the NL with 128 RBI. He was named Sporting News Major League Player of the Year and winner of the NL Hank Aaron Award and a Silver Slugger Award. A five-time All-Star, Jones played for 10 of Atlanta’s record 14 division championship teams. On the Braves’ career lists, he ranks fourth in extra-base hits (732); fifth in runs (1,045), doubles (330), home runs (368), total bases (3,185) and RBI (1,117); sixth in games played (1,761) and at-bats (6,408); and seventh in hits (1,683). He averaged 157 games per year over his 11 full seasons in Atlanta. Jones subsequently played for the Los Angeles Dodgers, Texas Rangers, Chicago White Sox and Yankees. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2016. The native of Curacao has made substantial advances in National Baseball Hall of Fame balloting, rising from 7.3 percent in his first

CHIPPER JONES

INFIELDER

Full Name Larry Wayne Jones, Jr.

Bats SwitchThrows Right

Height 6-4Weight 210

DOB 4/24/1972Born DeLand, FL

Years With Braves 1993, 1995-2012

Number Retired 2013

Chipper Jones went from a first overall draft pick to a first-ballot Hall of Famer. In between, he spent his entire 18-year major league career in a Braves uniform, playing in more games than anyone in Atlanta history (2,499). He is the Atlanta career leader in virtually every offensive category, including hits (2,726), doubles (549), home runs (468), RBI (1,623), runs (1,619), total bases (4,755), extra-base hits (1,055), walks (franchise-record 1,512), on-base percentage (franchise-record .401) and at-bats (8,984). His .303 batting average and .529 slugging percentage rank second and his 38 triples tied for second. On the franchise career lists, Jones is second to Hank Aaron in games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, RBI, total bases and extra-base hits; third in home runs and slugging percentage; and tied for fifth in batting average. Jones is the lone switch-hitter in Major League Baseball history with a lifetime .300 batting average and 300-plus home runs. Only Frankie Frisch posted a higher average (.316), only Eddie Murray collected more RBI (1,917) and only

Mickey Mantle (536) and Murray (504) slugged more homers. The Braves selected Jones in the 1990 amateur draft, and five years later he was runner-up for National League Rookie of the Year honors (to Los Angeles pitcher Hideo Nomo). Jones evolved into a premier third baseman and was an eight-time All-Star, including four starts. He was named the 1999 NL Most Valuable Player after batting .319 with 41 doubles, 45 homers, 110 RBI, 116 runs and 126 walks. Five other times he finished in the top 10 in MVP balloting. On July 5, 2007, Jones passed Dale Murphy for the most home runs in Atlanta annals. In 2008, Jones led the league with a .364 batting average (third-best in franchise history). He owns four of the top 10 season on-base percentages in franchise history, including an Atlanta-record .470 mark in 2008. In his first year of eligibility for the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018, Jones received 97.2 percent of the vote. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2013 and the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015..

GREG MADDUX

PITCHER

Full Name Gregory Alan Maddux

Bats Right

Throws Right

Height 6-0

Weight 170

DOB 4/14/1966

Born San Angelo, TX

Years With Braves 1993-2003

Number Retired 2009

Greg Maddux became the most dominant pitcher in baseball during his 11 seasons with the Braves from 1993 to 2003. On the heels of winning his first Cy Young Award in 1992 with the Chicago Cubs, Maddux signed with the Braves as a free agent and proceeded to win three consecutive Cy Young awards. With Atlanta, Maddux led the NL in ERA four times (1993, 1994, 1995 and 1998) and wins twice (1994 and 1995). His franchise-record 1.56 ERA during the 1994 season was the second-lowest in the major leagues since Bob Gibson's 1.12 mark in 1968. In 1995, Maddux went 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA while leading the league with 209.2 innings pitched, 10 complete games and three shutouts and helping the Braves win the World Series. On the Braves' career lists, Maddux ranks second in ERA (2.63), fifth in strikeouts (1,828), sixth in wins (194) and 10th in shutouts (21). The right-hander known as "Mad Dog" featured pinpoint control and uncanny late movement on his fastball. After leaving Atlanta, Maddux had a second stint with the Cubs and before playing for the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Diego Padres. He won 15 or more games for 17 consecutive seasons (1988-2004) – the only pitcher in major league history to do so. Upon his retirement, Maddux ranked eighth all-time with 355 wins and 10th with 3,371 strikeouts. He won a record 18 Gold Gloves, including 10 with the Braves. He was an eight-time All-Star and the NL starting pitcher in 1994, 1997 and 1998. Maddux was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2009. At the induction ceremony, manager Bobby Cox remarked: "I get asked all the time was he the best pitcher I ever saw? Was he the smartest pitcher I ever saw? The most competitive I ever saw? The best teammate I ever saw? The answer is yes to all of those." Maddux was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014, earning 97.2 percent of the vote (the 10th-highest total ever) in his first year on the ballot.

DOB 3/12/1956

Born Portland, OR

Years With Braves 1976-90

Number Retired 1994

The Braves drafted Dale Murphy No. 5 overall in 1974, but five years later he had yet to reach his potential as a sometime catcher/sometime first baseman. Then, manager Bobby Cox made Murphy a full-time outfielder and from 1980 to 1989, Murphy averaged 31 home runs and 93 RBI. He was the back-to-back NL Most Valuable Player in 1982 (.281, 36 home runs, 109 RBI and 23 stolen bases) and 1983 (.302, 36 home runs, 121 RBI, franchise-record 131 runs scored and 30 stolen bases). In 1983, Murphy became the sixth different player in baseball history with 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a season. He led the NL with 332 total bases and tied for the lead with 36 home runs in 1984 and topped the circuit with 37 home runs and 118 runs scored the following year. From September 26, 1981, to July 8, 1986, Murphy played in 740 consecutive games. He appeared in seven All-Star Games – leading all vote-getters in 1985 – and won five Gold Glove Awards and four Silver Slugger Awards. Throughout his career, Murphy displayed a high moral character, receiving the Lou Gehrig Award in 1985 and the Roberto Clemente Award in 1988. On the Braves’ career lists, he is fourth in games played (1,926), runs (1,103), hits (1,901), home runs (371), RBI (1,143) and total bases (3,394), and he is second in each category to Chipper Jones since the franchise moved to Atlanta. “Murph” was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2000.

When Braves General Manager Bobby Cox acquired 20-year-old John Smoltz from Detroit in 1987 for 36-year-old Doyle Alexander, he did so with an eye on the future. Smoltz delivered, excelling as both a starter and reliever over the the next two decades. He is the only pitcher in MLB history with 200 wins and 150 saves. In 14 full seasons starting, he won 14 or more games 10 times. Twice, he led the NL or shared the lead in wins (1996 and 2006), innings pitched (1996 and 1997) and strikeouts (1992 and 1996). He ranked in the top 10 in ERA eight times, Smoltz won the Cy Young Award in 1996 while fanning a franchise-record 276. Following “Tommy John” surgery that sidelined him for all of 2000, Smoltz closed for three-plus seasons. He set an NL record with 55 saves in 2002 and finished third for the Cy Young Award. Smoltz became the 16th member of the 3,000-strikeout club on April 22, 2008. On the Braves’ career lists, he ranks first in strikeouts (3,011), second in saves (154) and fifth in wins (210). In 40 postseason games with Atlanta, Smoltz was 15-4 with four saves a 2.65 ERA. Smoltz, Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux anchored a pitching staff that helped the Braves win 14 straight division titles from 1991 to 2005 and the 1995 World Series. Smoltz was the only player to be a part of each division championship. Smoltz was an eight-time All-Star who concluded his career with Boston and St. Louis in 2009. He won with the Roberto Clemente Award in 2005 and with the Branch Rickey Award in 2007. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in June 2012 and was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Famer in 2015, joining Glavine and Maddux in Cooperstown.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM [1966-96]

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. The club broke ground on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. The approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. The architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. The general contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons until the club moved into the Georgia Dome in 1992 and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

TURNER FIELD (1997–2016)

Originally built to serve as the heart of the 1996 Summer Olympics, Turner Field became the home of the Braves in 1997. The team played there through the 2016 season, going 951–667 (.588) in the regular season at the park, while winning 10 NL East titles. The park sits between Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard to the north, Hank Aaron Drive to the east, Bill Lucas Drive to the south and Pollard Boulevard to the west. The $209-million stadium began construction in 1993 and opened three years later as Centennial Olympic Stadium. The 85,000-seat structure served as the centerpiece of the 1996 Summer Olympics, housing the opening and closing ceremonies, along with track and field events. After the completion of the Paralympic Games in August, the stadium was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility over the course of seven months from September until April of 1997. Much of the north end of the stadium was taken out to install the outfield walls, while Entry Plaza, the main entrance to Turner Field, was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track-and-field complex were removed. The Braves played their first game at Turner Field on April 4, 1997, beating the Chicago Cubs, 5–4. The club drew 3,464,488 fans in their first season, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. Over their 20 seasons at the ballpark, the Braves welcomed 52,439,513 regular season fans to Turner Field, while surpassing two million fans in every year. The Braves beat the Detroit Tigers, 1–0, in Turner Field’s final game on October 2, 2016. The club moved their offices out of the ballpark in December of that year, with Georgia State University taking control after purchasing the stadium for $22.8 million.

ATLANTA’S OPENING DAY RECORDS

HOME RUNS

The Braves have hit 58 home runs on Opening Day since the club moved to Atlanta in 1966. Five players (Dale Murphy, Fred McGriff, Andruw Jones, Brian McCann, and Freddie Freeman) hold the Atlanta-era record with three career homers in openers, while Joe Torre, McGriff and Edgar Renteria are the only Atlanta Braves with a multi-homer game on Opening Day. In 2018, Nick Markakis hit the only game-ending home run on Opening Day in Atlanta franchise history, driving a 1-1, ninth-inning pitch out to right field to give the Braves an 8-5 win.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 26 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 28.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

ROOKIE RULE: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 26-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

DAY / NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

INJURED LISTS

7-DAY INJURED LIST: Introduced in the 2011 season, the 7-day disabled list was created specifically for players with concussion symptoms. A 7-day IL stint cannot be backdated by more than five days.

10-DAY INJURED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is 10 days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

15-DAY INJURED LIST: The 15-day injured list is specifically for pitchers and two-way players. It allows clubs to remove injured pitchers from the 26-man active roster while keeping them on the 40-man roster.

60-DAY INJURED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

REGULATION GAME

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety. Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969.
